Astonishing service in South Africa's lush wine region.

Very few properties can pull off the rustic farmhouse concept, and Babylonstoren is one of them. Located in the rolling hills of South Africa's lush wine region, this true farm captivates all of your senses. Upon arrival we were immediately stunned by the service, and then astonished again by the simple yet elegant farm cottage accommodation. From the fresh vegetables placed in your room to the myriad of unique vegetation to nibble on as you walk through the property—and, of course, Babel-Babylonstoren delivers some of the finest food in the world. Even if you don't stay at the property, we still recommend paying them a visit to dine or even just to walk the grounds. It's quite a unique place.
